The Election.

Next Tuesday is election day, the day voters must choose who shall serve them as County officers for the next four years. Magistrates in the various precincts will also be elected. From every indication there will be considerable crossing, particularly in as many as three of the races. The men who will do the most for the county, should be put in office. Men who have pet measures; who want to get into office to get some special thing through, should not be supported. We have an opportunity to get a set of officers into office who can, will and have done something for the people of the county, so do your duty early next Tuesday morning.

How Sheep Do Pay.

Clarence Lebus, of Lexington, has sold to Tatum, Embry & Co., Louisville, 1,500 lambs which averaged ninety pounds each, at 17 cents a pound. This is one of the best sales of lambs ever made in Kentucky, the shipment bringing Mr. Lebus about $23,000. Lebus, who will have around 12,000 pounds of wool in his next clip, has refused an offer of $1 a pound for his entire crop.

Four Births In As Many Days.

Dr. Martin reports the following births for the week:

- Oct. 26, a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hamilton.
- Oct. 27, a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Walters.
- Oct. 28, a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Carter Reynolds.
- Oct. 29, a boy to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Slimp.

Moving to Missouri.

Mr. Grant Elkins, William and Miss Hoyt Elkins left the first of the week for Labele, Mo., where they expect to reside. Mr. Elkin will remain here for a while to look after his business affairs.—Beattyville Enterprise.

Mrs. Elkin was formerly Miss Hattie Hoskin of this city.

Gets Honorable Discharge.

Otis Mackey, one of the county's draftees at Camp Taylor, has been honorably discharged, and he has returned home. Mr. Mackey has, for a number of years, had a crippled hand and is a sufferer from rheumatism. Mr. Mackey visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hackey, last night and left this morning for his home at Fleming.

Winter Weather Again.

A heavy rain Monday night, turned into cold weather Tuesday morning with a very cold wind continually blowing flakes of snow. The forward winter weather seems bent on staying with us.

Bank Gets More Bonds.

Several days before the closing of the sale of bonds the Clay City National Bank took an additional loan of $5,000, making in all $30,000 for this issue of Government bonds.

Moving Mill.

The machinery in Brodhead-Garrett's saw mill has been sold to a Louisville concern and is being loaded and shipped there.

Why Hogs Have Declined.

A statement has appeared in Chicago papers that the United States Food Administration has the intention of reducing the hog price to $10.00. This statement has caused a rush to market of thousands of hogs half fat. This has glutted the market and caused a very sharp decline in price. These Chicago advices are branded absolutely untrue and not to represent opinion or propose action of the Food Administration, which will take no steps it claims to jeopardize live stock producers' interests.

Buys Bluegrass Farm.

W. R. Sparks, of this county, last week bought a farm of J. W. Jewell in Clark county for $15,500 cash. The farm contains 88 acres and is located on the Ecton pike. Mr. Sparks will move to his new purchase soon as possession can be obtained. Mr. Sparks is one of the county's fortunates in the oil business. He owns 46 acres in the Ashley field, and it is the returns from an oil lease that has enabled him, as scores of others, to buy bluegrass farm at fancy price.

Food Campaign Organized.

The food campaign has been organized in 117 of the 120 counties of the State. County Chairmen have been appointed in each of these 117 counties of which Powell is one. Mrs. Kate S. Bohannon, of Stanton, is our County Chairman. The idea is to establish a systematic and economical food consumption in all parts of the State that there may be a plenty to go 'round and still have a plenty left. Good idea but the success of its operation is very dubious.

Young Men In Demand.

The Government needs thousands of young men for telegraph operators and signal corps service. It is claimed that schools throughout the country will be equipped to teach the latter service and the Courier-Journal Saturday says the recruiting stations there are now enlisting young men for the telegraph service. It behooves capable young men to prepare for this branch of service rather than later be drafted for trench fighting.

Powell Men on the Ticket.

There are two city tickets before the people of Irvine and one Powell man on each ticket. S. M. Mapel is candidate for Councilman on the citizen ticket, and Franklin Margison a nominee for the same place on the Republican ticket. James Mauppin, another Republican candidate for Councilman, is a son of James Mauppin of this city.

Lots of Canned Fruit.

Miss Mary Sweeney, Chairman of the Home Economics Committee of the Kentucky Council of National Defence, estimates that 150,000,000 quarts of fruits and vegetables, valued at $40,000,000, have been canned in Kentucky this season.

Mountain Money Makes Her Go

The Richmond Climax in comparing land prices a few years ago and now, gave price of a piece of 83 acres in Madison county that sold for $2,000 seven years ago, at $10,437. This is more than 500 per cent increase in price.

A BOOKKEEPER WITH STEEL BRAINS.

Gets Voluntary Sentence for Life at Powell County Deposit Bank.

The volume of business transacted by the Powell County Deposit Bank had grown to a point where more clerical assistance was absolutely necessary. Cashier O. C. Atkinson called the directors together and explained the situation.

"We need more help on our books," he stated. "Business demands we speed up the handling of our accounts if for no other reason than to give the best service to depositors."

When the cry "Help Wanted" was sent out, one application received in response compelled attention because of its originality and evident merit. It reads as follows:

"To the Officers and Directors of the Powell County Deposit Bank, Gentlemen: I desire to present herewith my application for employment as bookkeeper in your institution. I am of mature age and of steady habits. I do not drink, smoke, chew or use profane language and I am not given to running around nights. My associates are always of the highest character and I have the best education that money can buy. I am steady, unencumbered and want only permanent position. I was never known to make an error and if anything goes wrong with me you need not pay me a cent. Here is my proposition: Buy me outright for less money than it takes to pay an ordinary bookkeeper's yearly salary and I'll get to work at once in your accounting department and remain there a lifetime with out further remuneration. Clerks may come and clerks may go but I'll keep on forever. Yours for better service. A Burroughs."

The reading of this application resulted in bringing Mr. A. Burroughs before the directorate.

Burroughs came in arm in arm with several close friends.

"Gentlemen," said the agent representing Burroughs, "allow me to make you acquainted with the most remarkable accountant in the business world today. It's a machine whose life blood is an electric current, but whose brains warrant it to be assumed to have human intelligence and to be even more correct than the human brain."

The directorate sat forward with keen interest.

The operation of the Burroughs Bank Bookkeeping Machine was then explained in detail. The attachment of a connection sent at electric current whirring through the "veins" of the machine and it became alive. It demonstrated its ability to post ledgers and make out depositors' statements with equal facility. It showed how it lists and subtracts checks, lists and adds deposits, and computes the new balance automatically and in practically one operation.

The machine is known as the Burroughs Adding-Subtracting Ledger Posting and Statement

Mr. F. P. Adams is out again after being confined to his room for several days from an injury sustained by a ladder falling on him the day his house was burned.

We see in the Lexington Herald Tuesday where P. R. Shimpfessel, a native of this county, and a brother of Wm. Shimpfessel, of Hardwick's creek, is advertising a large sale of live stock, crops, farm implements and household and kitchen furniture.

Machine, and it is certainly a wonderful bookkeeper. It prints dates, adds deposits, subtracts checks and does all the work ordinarily done by hand in much less time, with a great deal more accuracy and neatness. It is impossible for the machine to make a mistake if the operator gives it the correct figures.

In addition to posting the ledgers, making out depositors' statements, in short, keeping the bank's books, the machine can be set simply for use as an adding or subtracting machine. The bank management invites the public to call and see the new Burroughs in operation.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE,
ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

For some weeks the Times has been running some matter advocating the support of the constitutional amendment to allow the purchase, lease or control of one telephone company, the exchange line of another company parallel to its own line. The Times ordinarily oppose such moves and would oppose such an amendment if it applied to railroads or other utilities where competition cheapens service. Competing telephone service does not cheapen the service, but on the other hand it increases the cost, and impairs its efficiency in every instance, so we favor the amendment because it is best for the people by enabling them to make one telephone do the work where two are required, if it be in a town or city where two exchanges are located. This amendment will be of no benefit to Powell county since there is only the Cumberland lines in its confines, but we should not be so selfish as to fail to vote "yes" on the amendment next Tuesday when we go to vote. Do this for the sake of others who must maintain a double service at double cost to have complete service.

The federal trade commission has taken steps to prevent future newsprint paper price increases on false reports of short supplies.

Newspaper publishers throughout the country have been directed to keep the commission informed monthly as to their rate of consumption and the amount of paper stocks on hand. Already manufacturers are required to furnish production reports.

The sharp rise in prices last year was charged by the commission in large measure to the suggestion of manufacturers that they could not keep up with the rate of consumption. The commission's investigation showed that there was no actual shortage, and it intends that a similar situation shall not arise again.

Speaking of the equitable adjustment of matters in general which our Government is trying to regulate, we might, at least occasionally give passing notice to the freight rates charged on coal. In Saturday's Louisville Herald we saw the statement made that while the charge for hauling coal to Irvine from Beattyville mines was $1.10 per ton, it was but $1.00 to Louisville, four times the distance, and but 85 cents to New Albany, Ind., still further, and across the Ohio river. If the railroad can haul coal to the Ohio river for 85 cents a ton and make money, any more than that charged towns along the route is excessive and wrong. What we need is legislative bodies at Washington and Frankfort who are not afraid to pass a law and fix a penalty for persons perpetrating such wrongs. Then with the enforcement of these laws we will have equitable rates.

We notice where this country is facing a great shortage of sugar. We do hope it will not get so short in this country as Allied England where sugar imported for ordinary consumption is withheld and notice given that no sugar is to be delivered to any persons except brewers. This cuts out virtually all sweets in England as only enough sugar can be gotten to make the beer that is wanted.

When you contemplate the shortage of coal, remember that the liquor trade is using 3,000,000 tons of coal a year and would be using 4,500,000 tons if the distilling of whisky had not been stopped.

Look at our overburdened railroads, think of your inconveniences because of car shortage, and then remember: The railroads of the country are carrying 7,000,000 tons of intoxicants yearly.

ROSSLYN.

Mrs. Rupert Derickson is on the sick list.

Mrs. Ellice Smith visited her daughter near Bowen Sunday.

H. T. Ewing has moved his family back to the oil fields near the old Furnace.

Mr. J. D. Mardis and Mrs. Mollie Woodard were married at Stanton last Monday.

Miss Maud Benningfield visited her cousin, Miss Vina Benningfield, last Friday night.

John Morton who has been sick, very bad sick, is still very sick and not improving any.

Joab Morton has moved his family to the farm of his brother-in-law, Mack Daniel, near Nada.

Lewis Johnson has returned from Winchester after a few weeks visit with relatives there.

Mr. Henry Benningfield and wife, of Stanton, Mrs. Laure Combs, of Jackson, Mack Daniel and children, Joab Morton and daughter visited R. M. Morton Sunday.

PILOT

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz are here on a short visit.

Mr. Hermon Winters is at Hare camps again.

Mr. G. D. Weaver left for Winchester to return soon.

Mr. Warfield, from Indiana, arrived at Hare camp this week.

Miss Maud Bowen visited Mrs. Nick Rogers Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burgess, of this place, are leaving for Kansas.

Mrs. Belle Campbell, and son, put up a new store a short time ago.

The box supper at the Hall school house was very successful, despite the mist of rain.

Misses Maud Bowen, Lula and Laura Hall visited Beech Grove school on Columbus day.

Mr. I. R. Cleveland, of Indiana, returned to Pilot last Friday after a short visit with home folks.

Chestnuts are ripe and are being picked up by the gallon. The nuts are not so large this year as usual.

Mr. Burnam Ingram, driller on Ashley lease, visited his family in Menifee county over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. T. A. Hall entertained a crowd of young folks Monday night. They made candy and enjoyed themselves very much.

There are two new victrolas in this week. One at the home of Mr. D. C. Hall and the other at Mr. H. V. Hall's. We will have some music.

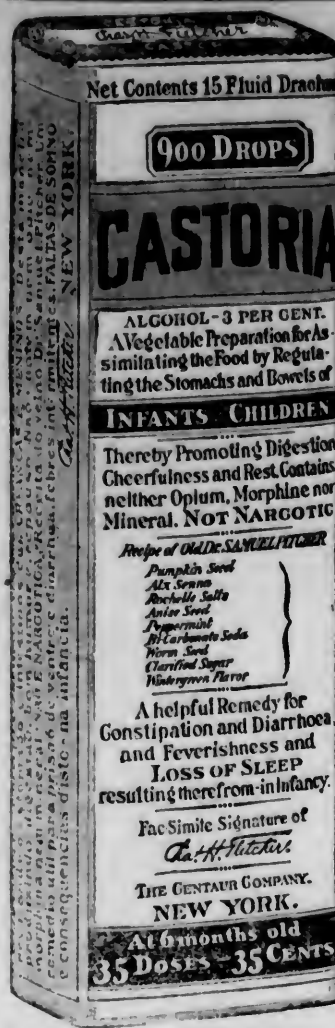

Mr. Fred Kinser threw a can of crude oil on the fire and was kept very busy sweeping up the fire, caused by falling particles of soot, for a couple of hours to keep his home from burning.

Mr. Mays, the cook at the Hare camp, has gone home. The boarders are glad, for Mrs. Ed Bulger has kindly consented to take charge until another cook can be secured. Mrs. Bulger is an excellent cook.

We are sorry to lose so many of our young men, who have gone to Camp Taylor at Louisville. Rudell Townsend, Valis Gearheart, Willie Townsend and Walker Lovelace, have already gone and Howard Townsend is expecting to go shortly.

Resolutions Adopted At Teachers Institute.

Resolved:

I. That we thank Mr. Giffen for the use of Stanton College building, for the course in music which he has given, and for the many courtesies he has shown to the teachers during the week.

II. That we thank Dr. Johnson, Mrs. Groves, Mr. Derthick and the Stanton College teachers for the helpful talks which they have given.

III. That we heartily endorse Mr. Enbank as an Institute instructor and that we express to him our thanks for the kind, faithful, and efficient instruction rendered.

IV. That we as teachers feel that there should be some provision by which we could be paid more promptly for our services.

V. That we look with disfavor upon the custom of requiring the younger children to spend so much time in the school room. That we favor and practice the plan, when practicable, as suggested by Mr. Proffitt of allowing the smaller children more recreation.

VI. That we favor the enactment of a law which shall provide for the teaching of at least the rudiments of music to all pupils in our schools.

VII. That we favor a law requiring all teachers to secure at least a high school education or its equivalent.

VIII. That we feel it our duty as teachers to make an effort to instill into our pupils more patriotism; that we fly the flag from our school buildings. That we endorse the work of the Red Cross; and that we make an effort to have every pupil in our schools and every patron in our districts become a member of the same.

IX. That we as teachers wish for and that we shall insist upon the enforcement of the Compulsory Education law.

X. That we favor the compliance with the law which requires the establishment of a County High School in Powell County.

XI. That we give more attention to the care of school property.

XII. That we express our very great appreciation to Mrs. Bohanan for the years of efficient service which she has rendered the schools of the county and for the very courteous manner that she has always manifested towards the teachers, and that we express our regret that she is no longer to serve as our superintendent.

Yearling Steer Estray.

As saloons move out, the constructive forces of society move in.

Hedge Balls for Feed.

But few people in Kentucky know that hedge apples are an excellent cattle feed, and that they are easily kept for winter feeding by storing them in the dry and covering them with hay or straw, while there are no extensive quantities of these in this county or state, there are a few trees and groves of them, and what is here should certainly be saved as feed is going to be scarcer and higher this winter than ever before.

An experiment in which the ripe hedge balls were fed to dairy cows was conducted two years ago at the Kentucky Experiment Station. The results showed that as much as 10 lbs. of ripe apples could be fed to a cow daily without producing any ill effects on the cow or the milk she produced during the experiment.

The ball should be chopped in small pieces previous to feeding so as to give the animal a better opportunity to more thoroughly masticate and to digest the oil and protein contained in the seed.

Notice to City Taxpayers.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees, of Clay City, Ky., held Friday night, Oct. 5, 1917, T. P. Mountz was duly elected city tax collector. All persons owing city taxes are requested to call on Mr. Mountz and settle same, as the city is in need of funds to carry on the school and keep up other necessary expenses.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, ... and the pains were very severe. A friend ... and tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

grabbed up quickly. He will have another car in this week and Larkin Stamper will handle it. See him if you want coal. As long as the writer can get it he will try to see that everybody in Stanton has coal.

Mrs. J. S. Ewen, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Nell Atkinson and son, Marion, left Tuesday for Wolfe Coal to visit Mrs. Ewen's daughter, Mrs. J. L. Oldham. The writer spent over Sunday in their home and held services there. They have a beautiful home and such pleasant surroundings.

Misses Louise Brehmer, Alberto McBride, Jane Phillips and Alice Childs and Mr. H. H. Harrison spent Saturday at Clay City at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal A. Ranson where they partook of a bountiful dinner and spent an enjoyable day. Whenever the teachers go to the Ranson home they always come back and report a splendid time.

Wm. T. McIntyre, a brilliant young speaker of Xena College, Ohio, will give a lecture on a great political question next Saturday night at the Court House. It is desired that every man in Stanton and surrounding country of whatever political party be present at this lecture. Coming on the eve of the election what Mr. McIntyre has to say will be of intense interest to the candidates and voters of Powell county. The lecture will be free to all. Women are invited to be present also.

Mrs. James Patrick, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Kate Bohannan and Miss Anita Wells attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Little, of Jackson Monday of this week. Fifty years is a long time for two people to live together and we know of no happier and more devoted couple than these two of Jackson. Together they have walked the pathway of life, sharing each other's joy and sorrows, standing by each other through sickness and health, through prosperity and adversity and nearing the journey's end still comrades to each other.

Mr. Chapin, a poultry expert sent out by the State of Kentucky was here last week in the interest of getting Powell county to raise the Rhode Island chickens or any other breed they may prefer. He says that the Reds are the best all round chickens. We wish to state that the White Leghorns can't be beat for laying qualities, though we will admit the Reds are it when it comes to marketing them. Mr. Chapin and Mr. Chapin and Mr. Harrison were successful in raising $150 in Stanton for poultry and $200 in Clay City for pigs. These will be explained later and more fully.

This is about the quietest election we have ever had in Powell county. We seldom hear anything said nor are the candidates themselves saying anything. They seem to be leaving it up to the people to put in who they want. The writer has just this much to say. We have good or bad candidates in our beloved county just according as to what men we put in office. If you want good conditions, then put in good men irrespective of politics, and if you want bad conditions then put in bad men. However nearly all the candidates this year are good men, but the writer believes that one or two of them had better be left behind when the final vote is cast. More and more we are coming to vote for MEN instead of partyism.

On account of the heavy rain last Saturday afternoon there was no meeting of the Red Cross at the Court House as had been planned. But arrangements have been made to have an all day meeting at the College next Saturday. This seems to be the best place for the meeting as all the facilities needed are there, particularly cutting tables and machines. The yarn and goods necessary for use have arrived. Mrs. Groves and Mrs. Whitt, of Clay City, will be over Saturday to give all instructions for the knitting and sewing. It will be necessary for all women who are willing to do some work in their homes for the Red Cross to be at this meeting Saturday. The meeting will begin at nine o'clock. It is desired that all women who can possibly do so bring a lunch and stay all day. You need not bring any elaborate lunch, just enough to satisfy. Let all the women be out Saturday to spend the day together and do a days work for the soldier boys in France. Sweaters and socks are to be knit and hospital night shirts are to be made. Mrs. Groves and Mrs. Whitt have been to Lexington to take instructions and they will teach the women of Stanton just how the work is to be done.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

(CONSECRATION MEETING.)

"Perseverancy"
(Ephes. VI. 10-20.)

Leader: Miss Ethel D. Johnson.

Notice to Voters.

The report has gone forth that if I am elected Sheriff, Judge Derickson will be my deputy. To offset this, I wish to say, that, notwithstanding his ability as an officer, and his high standing throughout the county, he will not be my deputy if I am elected. He does not seek nor want the place; thus the report is utterly false, and without foundation. On the other hand, if I am elected Sheriff, I will select as deputies, younger men, and men wholly capable of performing the duties of the office and men fully worthy the trust, and agreeable to the voters. F. G. POWELL.

CARD OF DR. M. S. BROWNE, WINCHESTER, KY.

At home in his old office in good health, and ready by May 10th, for active work. This notifies his friends that he limits practice to consultation and chronic cases, especially those baffling the skill of the profession in diagnosis and treatment.
